

Linea Group Chief Executive

Ian Chambers

Turnaround, Transformation
& Change Expert

What are the most enjoyable aspects of your job?

Working with clients to help them overcome complex problems, through the implementation of rapid interventions and the development of sustainable solutions.

What was your first job?

I worked part-time in Tesco whilst at school, before becoming a management trainee.

What skill would you most like to have?

Teleportation and time travel.

Teleportation because I wouldn't need to spend time travelling so would have more time to spend with family, friends and clients.

Time travel so I could experience the past and the future. Who hasn't watched Back to the Future and thought for a moment, if only?

What did you want to be when you grew up?

A stuntman, but I then realised that it hurt when I fell off my bike and thought I should perhaps pursue an alternative career.

List 5 words that describe your character

Driven, hardworking, sincere, humble, excellence.

What are your interests outside of work?

Spending time with my family, cycling, running and football (until a recent injury put pay to that).

What's the best piece of advice you could give someone?

Never stop learning.

Treat every day as an opportunity to learn something new.

Challenge yourself to know more today than you did yesterday.

What's one thing you couldn't live without?

My family.

If given a chance, who would you like to be for a day?

Myself 20 years ago, so I could pass on what I now know (and I had more hair).

If you were stuck on an island what three things would you bring?

Really practical sorry:

Food / Water.

A box of matches.

Someone else to share the experience.
