

Linea Highlights of 2017

Press Release

Quarter 1:

2017 began with a successful tender for Health Trust Europe's Management Consultancy & Advisory Services Framework.

Linea Group joined the likes of PWC, Grant Thornton and KPMG on the list of approved providers.

The framework will run for a period of up to four years, providing support to the public sector and private sector entities with similar procurement requirements.

Linea was approved to provide services across three key lots:

Business Services - comprising; process redesign & improvement, programme & project management; and management consultancy services.

Resource Management Services - comprising Human Resource Management and Workforce Optimisation services.

Supply Chain Management Services - comprising advisory services for sourcing, procurement and supply chain management.

Quarter 2:

Linea enjoyed further framework success when it was again awarded to the Crown Commercial Services' G-Cloud Framework.

Under G-Cloud, Linea Group continues to offer Project & Programme Management and Software As A Service (SAAS) solutions to support the implementation of and migration to Cloud based services, but were also pleased to announce the addition of Advanced Digital Transcription Services, innovative online NHS Revenue Improvement System and our sophisticated organisational efficiency tool Affinity<sup>5</sup>.

Quarter 3:

Linea's Chief Executive, Ian Chambers celebrated personal success by becoming an official member of the Institute For Turnaround following successful completion of their rigorous application process.

The IFT is Europe's leading representative body for accredited turnaround & transformation professionals providing those suitably qualified & experienced with a recognised and unique accreditation.

Quarter 4:

The year ended with Linea being named as the winner of the Award for Best Organisational Excellence Consultancy 2017 in the 2017 M&A Awards and as the winner of the Award for Best Performance Management Consultancy 2017 in the 2017 North West Enterprise Awards.

Linea is a results focused organisational excellence consultancy with a track record of delivering sustained superior performance that meets and where possible exceeds client expectations.
