

Linea Shortlisted For The 2018 IFT Awards

Press Release

Linea shortlisted for the 2018 IFT Annual Awards.

Organisational Excellence specialist, Linea Group, is pleased to announce that one of its programmes, led by Linea Chief Executive Ian Chambers has been shortlisted for the Public Sector Turnaround Award by the IFT.

The IFT Awards seek to identify and celebrate exceptional performance, a strong moral compass and innovation of the turnaround community; reinvigorating companies and enabling them to succeed.

“We are thrilled that our work has been recognised by an organisation such as The IFT” comments Ian Chambers, “We look forward to finding out the results at the awards night next month”.

Linea will join a number of other companies and members of The IFT at the annual Awards in London on November 22nd.

Linea is a results focused organisational excellence consultancy with a track record of delivering sustained superior performance that meets and where possible exceeds client expectations.
